The Eisner & Dwyer Law Firm

Eisner & Dwyer has many years' experience in the rapid processing of visa and work permit applications for highly qualified foreign specialists coming to Germany. The firm has in-depth knowledge of German law and the formalities associated with the preparation and submission of applications.

To expedite applications, we stay in constant contact with German consulates and the related offices within Germany. As part of our service, we also provide regular status reports on each application so that clients can accurately anticipate both the conclusion of the process and the employment start date in Germany.

Our client base includes many large- and medium-sized companies operating within Germany or internationally.

At a glance:

For many companies in Germany, the employment of highly qualified foreign specialists is a critical success factor. Eisner & Dwyer guides its clients competently, reliably, and rapidly through all kinds of visa and work permit applications, as well as offering complete legal support.

Our expertise:

- Employee and contract staff visa and work permit applications
- Dependency visa and work permit applications
- Setting up of companies and branch offices in Germany
- Legal consultancy

An overview of our key services:

- ❖ Advising clients that wish to contract foreign specialists and the preparation of the correct documentation.
- ❖ Optimising and expediting the process of visa and work permit applications by working closely with the relevant authorities in Germany.
- ❖ Advising on the correct type of application (usually Blue Card, work permit, and/or permanent residence permit), in order to ensure that the application is processed as efficiently as possible.
- ❖ Meeting the individual needs of each client by aligning the application process with internal business structures.
- ❖ Providing transparency through access to our online database which allows clients to track applications and the relevant status in real-time.
- ❖ Exploiting all legal options and process knowledge, we are usually in the position to reduce the work visa application time to only 2-3 weeks.

Our additional services:

In addition to managing Blue Card and work permit applications for foreign specialists, we also provide a wide range of legal consultancy in civil, commercial, and labour law. This includes support for clients wishing to establish a company or branch office in Germany.

As well as the formal handling of the visa and work permit applications for candidates, we can also provide a similar service for their families and dependants. Our ethos is to try to ensure that prospective employees are confident that their future is in safe, trustworthy hands. In this respect, we offer them a personal point of contact within the firm.

We look forward to also supporting your company

Whatever your requirements in the employment and contracting of foreign specialists, you should retain the experts to ensure the best outcome.
